Where am I covered?

- ✓ UK, Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

What are my obligations?

- You must provide us with honest, accurate and complete information, and inform us without delay of any changes in your situation. Any information provided which is found to be incorrect could result in us either refusing to pay your claim completely or could affect the amount of the claim we will pay you. If this is the case, you will be responsible for picking up the cost for any repairs or replacement to any damaged or lost items yourself.
- In the event of a claim, you must notify us as soon as possible.
- You'll need to let us negotiate, defend or settle any disputes or claims on your behalf. You'll also need to let us take legal action in your name to get back any payment we've made under this policy.
- It's really important that you're honest with us when you're buying a policy or making a claim. Providing wrong or misleading information that you know could either help you gain financially, or us suffer a financial loss, is fraud and pushes up the cost of insurance for all customers.
- In some cases, the insurer may apply an endorsement to the policy, setting out, for example, security requirements. It's really important that you follow any terms set out in endorsements, as if you don't, you may not be covered in the event of a claim. If any endorsements apply to you, these will be explained to you (or displayed on-line) before you buy, and will also be shown on the policy schedule that you will receive after you buy.
